DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim(s) 13-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. "A recording medium" the claimed invention is directed to a judicial exception to 35 U.S.C. 101 (i.e., an abstract idea, natural phenomenon, or law of nature) and is not directed to a practical application of such judicial exception (e.g., because the claim does not require any physical transformation and the invention as claimed does not produce a useful, concrete, and tangible result).

Claim(s) 7-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the recording medium is running the method claims.

The applicant would overcome the rejection by amended the preamble of claim(s) 13 as suggested by the examiner:

"A computer readable medium encoded with a program capable of being executed by a computer to display a switching program, wherein said program comprises:".
